IN MEMORIAM

Sister Mary Ellen Cherry, a charter member of the Winnsboro Pilgrim Holiness Church, better known as Grandma Cherry to all who knew her, left this earthly temple of clay, to be with her precious Lord, whom she dearly loved and served, January 66, at the age of 87. She is greatly missed by all. But, I am sure heaven is much richer by the entrance of this saint of God.

Brother James Franklin Wright, age 68, member of the Winnsboro Pilgrim Holiness Church, left this earthly abode to be with the Lord, March 66. Truly a man of God, his last words to his Pastor were, "I've got the Victory!" He served as deacon, board member, and teacher in the past years. He leaves a vacant spot in our church, but, many good memories.

Sister Lou Ella Koon, member of the Killian Pilgrim Holiness Church, went to be with the Lord whom she dearly loved, March 66. Although in failing health for years, she was truly a blessing to all who knew her. Faithful to her God and her church. A faithful one has gone forth to claim her crown.

Mrs. Donald Wilson

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To our esteemed General Secretary of Church Extension Department, Rev. Wm. N. Miller, the ministry, delegates and friends, greetings in the name of Jesus. I wish to pay tribute to the former District Superintendent, Rev. T. M. Weir, for his outstanding leadership and his untiring and sacrificial ministry in serving this District. May God bless him in his new field of labor.

I wish to give due recognition and praise to the God of all grace and our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for His love and providential care He has had over us throughout another year, thus enabling us to gather together in this Conference of the Atlantic Southeast District.

Statistics show that the moral and spiritual ebb of the nation were never at a lower tide than now. According to the Word of God this reveals that the Rapture is near at hand. It is also a voice crying unto us and telling us that, "What we do we must do quickly", and urging us to go all out for God and the salvation of souls.

When we read the great and urgent commission Christ gave us, yea gave you and me, individually as well as collectively, to go and make disciples, it brings a certain fear to our hearts, and we, if we are fulfilling our mission as sincerely and wholeheartedly as we ought.

In the midst of the fulfillment of the latter day prophecy, when men and seducers are waxing worse, and men are lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, and in the midst of the lukewarm, unconcerned spiritual atmosphere we are encountering, our concern must be for the needs of humanity. We must be concerned primarily with their spiritual needs, but we must not forget their physical needs. If the Gospel we are commissioned to carry and preach is accepted, it not only presents an antidote for the creeping paralysis of spiritual indifference, but it also provides for the mental, physical and spiritual needs of man. It is not enough for us as a church to try to bring the derelict, the great sinner, or the outcast from society to Christ, we must get the Gospel to them before they become great sinners and outcasts. This must be our prime concern. To this we must expend our greatest effort.

I have been praying, and I trust you have too, that back of every resolution that will be presented to this Conference, there was a heart-cry, a passion for souls, to help us find better ways and means to extend our efforts more successfully in spreading the Gospel and bringing men to Christ. Methods and techniques will amount to but little unless this is true. If every pastor and delegate can go home from this Conference with a greater VISION, a greater PASSION and a greater PRAYER, for souls, this conference will go down in history as a great conference. If this does not take place, we will go home to read minutes, and then wonder why we passed some legislation.

May the presence of the Holy Spirit fill us with a new vision of our responsibility to this generation. And as we go to our fields of labor we will work twice as hard for souls, and half as much for self.
