CHURCH REPORTS

INTERNATIONAL HOLINESS CHURCH OF COVINGTON, KY.

REV. L. R. WADE, Pastor.

To the Kentucky State Convention Convening at Kingswood, Kentucky, Greeting :

The church at Covington is on the upward move. We are well pleased and satisfied that great things are in store for us. We have a membership of fifty-seven—an increase of fifteen over last year. Practically all members being in a regenerated state and about 95 percent of these professing sanctification. The building once owned by the God's Bible School, was, on Sept. 15, 1920, acquired by the church; before this time the church membership constituted the attendance of the mission, thus producing great complicity in reports. The building being in very bad condition, plans have already been formulated to erect a new building to cost approximately $18,000.00 during the year.

About two hundred have sought the Lord for pardon and purity; dismissed 3; removed by death 2.
